What’s New @ the Library

The What’s New @ the Library Research Guide is available at http://libguides.library.cofc.edu/whatsnew. The guide provides information and resources about new services and happenings for the current semester.

You can also access the guide from the Library website by clicking on Research Guides > How to... > What’s New @ the Library.

Workshop Objectives

1. Show/navigate students to the “What’s New @ the Library” guide.
2. Describe changes and improvements to the library from the Addlestone Improvement Project.
4. Show and discuss Banned Books Week and associated events happening at the Library.
6. Review Service Highlights: Online study room reservations, the College Reads book display, KIC scanner, and trial/new database subscriptions.
7. Provide information and handout for upcoming Library workshops, Banned Books week events.

Getting Help

Got Questions? Nee assistance? Make sure to Ask Us! Chat directly with the Information Desk staff, email, text or call. You can also search our Knowledgebase for commonly asked questions at www.cofc.edu/library.